DETAILS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE
fringe, mesh, cables, ribs

A full-page photograph of a pregnant woman with long brown hair, smiling and looking to her right. She is wearing a light blue, textured, button-up cardigan over a white and blue striped bikini top. She is also wearing white pants with a large white bow at the waist. She is holding the waistband of her pants with both hands. The background is a bright, sunny outdoor setting with a white building and a palm tree visible.

This page: Simple updates—a short funnel neck, three-quarter-length sleeves—take a ho-hum sweater from average to awesome. Giant cables on a plain background and wide ribs add even more impact. It's stitched in Classic Elite Yarns' chunky "Weekend Cotton."

9

Opposite: Lip-smacking color and flirty flashes of fringe boost the humble tee to new heights. The lightweight tape yarn, Knit One Crochet Too's "Tartelette," is a cinch to work with and easy to wear. Ribs and waist shaping combine for a flattering fit.

10

MODERN DRAMA

Everything old is new again as tried-and-true stitches become fashion-savvy silhouettes.

12

13

This interpretation of the traditional twinset is pure elegance. The slip-stitch pattern of the cardigan—worked in powder-blue mohair—creates a pleasing contrast to the stockinette-stitch shell. Delicate “peekaboo” crocheted mesh edging gives the ensemble another touch of texture. Knit in “Softer” from Lane Cervinia/Plymouth Yarn and “Merino” from Le Fibre Nobili/Plymouth Yarn.

Pink is a fashion priority this spring, from the palest pastels to the boldest bubblegums. Pretty up your wardrobe with one of these primo projects.

ROSY OUTLOOK

A classic cardigan
in a length that flatters best lets you flirt with your feminine side.

17

Opposite: Perfect partners in a muted shade—a square-neck tank, a V-neck cardigan—charm with allover cables. Knit in touchable “Wool Cotton” from Debbie Bliss/KFI, Inc., both pieces are stylishly finished with a narrow crocheted edging.

This page, top: This loose-fitting hip-length jacket is just the ticket for a lovely, less structured look. Stitched in a textural yarn, Skacel Collection’s “Riviera Solid,” the relaxed silhouette is accented with deep ribs and petal-colored buttons.

This page, right: Long and lean, a belted jacket is the most versatile of wardrobe pieces. An allover traveling cable pairs with garter stitch; the pronounced V at the front makes it an ideal layering piece. Knit in “Classic Merino Wool” from Patons.

COLOR PLAY

Charlotte Parry's blossoming blanket and bouquet of pillows are as plush as they are playful. The throw alternates solid stockinette-stitch squares with intarsia flower-motif blocks; clever crocheted edging finishes it off. Petal pillows are knit in two pieces, then filled. The yarn is "Cotton Classic" from Tahki Yarns/Tahki+Stacy Charles, Inc.

SURF'S UP!

This page: Whether you're riding the waves or catching some rays, our body-baring basics ensure fun in the sun. The scallop-trimmed bikini top is stitched in single crochet; the seamless mini is in an open fan pattern, with a drawstring to secure the fit. All designs are by Doris Chan and are fashioned in Lion Brand Yarn Co.'s "Cotton-Ease."

34

35

Opposite, left: Want a little less exposure? The short-sleeve cropped top, worked from the neck down, and long hip-hugging skirt, featuring an opaque expanse at the waist, are just the ticket. Both pieces are crocheted in the round in the same open, airy fan pattern.

36

37

For a lunch date at the cabana, go undercover in this long sheath. Worked back and forth from the neck down in joined rounds, it is shaped at the waist for a flattering silhouette.

38

This bathing beauty pairs a sporty little-boy brief with a clever variation on the bikini top featured on page 54. Done up in single crochet, the shorts boast a durable drawstring slipped through a scallop-trimmed waistband.

39

Left: Hike up the hemline of the calf-length dress shown on page 55 and you have the perfect poolside coverup. The vibrant hue is sure to turn heads.

40

41

42

Above: This winning team lets you take it to the streets. The skirt is a twist on the long version, with the lace left off and a little length added for more coverage. The tie-front vest boasts a V neck, cap sleeves and dainty scalloped trim.

NOTES

- 1) Use a separate bobbin for each block of color. When changing colors, twist yarns on WS to prevent holes in the work.
- 2) If desired, the grass/leaves can be worked later with duplicate stitch.
- 3) Additional detail and color interest can be added (as was done on this garment) by using a method called bleach discharge. Mix a weak solution of bleach and water (10 parts water/1 part bleach) and apply lightly with a cotton swab or tiny sponge cosmetic applicator (eye shadow). Dab lightly on the surface of the stitches, allow bleach to remove desired amount of color. It is not necessary to saturate the sweater. The bleaching only takes a few minutes.
